Make

Your

Mark

A Letter From the President

Dear Class of 2013,

The time has come to "make your mark" on the world. As graduates of Columbia International University, you will venture into the marketplace, the mission field or local church ministry prepared to impact the nations with the message of Christ. Sitting under faithful men and women who taught you the eternal Word of God prepared you to enter the world for this purpose. Together we have been fulfilling the command Paul gave Timothy:

"And the things which you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, these entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also."
(2 Timothy 2:2)

I trust the challenge from our year verse, Mark 5:19, will provide the inspiration that carries you from CIU as you "go home to your people and report to them." Our Lord gives us the opportunity to make an impact on those at home and around the world for we are to tell them "what great things the Lord has done . . ." Although we are sad to see you go, it thrills us to see you enter the ministry to which God has led you. As you go, remember the words of Paul to Timothy, "teach others also". Let's impact the world together.

Bill Jones

"To Know Him and To Make Him Known"

Dr. Farra

Sacrificial Love, Wise Counsel, and Steadfast Devotion to the Kingdom of God-- These are words that describe my dear husband of 38 years. Mrs. Sharon Farra

Dr. Farra, the oldest of four children, was born to missionary parents who were headed to Brazil, where he spent his early years. He always had a serious nature and deep faith in God. While in college, he felt his calling, rather than medicine, should be to spend his life---"writting and speaking about that nature of man and the love of God."

He married his wife Sharon in 1974, and God blessed them with 6 children-- Laura, Jonathan, David, Daniel, James, and Matthew.
In 1995, he moved his family fo come direct the Psychology Department at CIU. Some of his first graduates in his program were Laura and Jonathan. He deilghts in being a father of a large family, and Grandpa to Tristan, Rosalee, and Andrew!

Through the years he has been: College Professor, Cross Country Coach (his team winning 10 consecutive NCCAA championships), Director of two counseling clinics, and in SC working with SCICU, as a research judge. To relax, he loves deep-sea and lake fishing, boating, chess, music, and photography.

All his life, Dr. Farra has been a seeker of truth and encouraging others to do the same. He has continually drawn his stength from God in the Psalms. His theme throughout his life that he penned years ago is: "Do your best and trust the Lord for the rest."

May God continue to bring forth much good fruit-- and glorify Himself.

Events...

Events here at Coulumbia International University, have become the social outings of the year. With beach and ski trips, dances, ministry opportunites and enjoying a school sponsored musical, CIU has become a community with many activites that anyone can participate in. Students have the the abitliy to meet new people, mingle with professors and enjoy the time they have here at CIU.

Welcome Week

Connect: CIU

Each year, new students are required to attend Connect: CIU before classes start. These few days are filled with many fun activities to meet new people and become acquainted with CIU. Students are able to get settled in their rooms and enjoy scavenger hunts and hall activities before the semester starts. This is a great time to get to know other new students and meet returning students who volunteer for Connect: CIU.

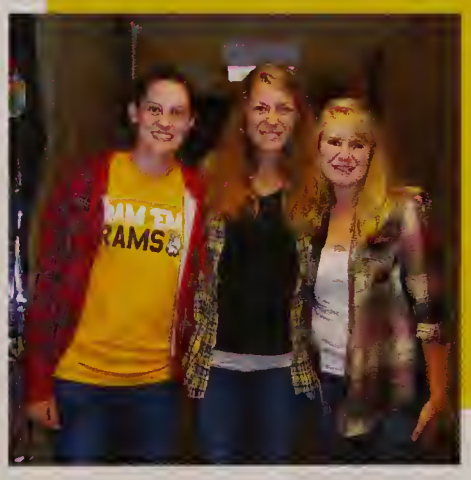
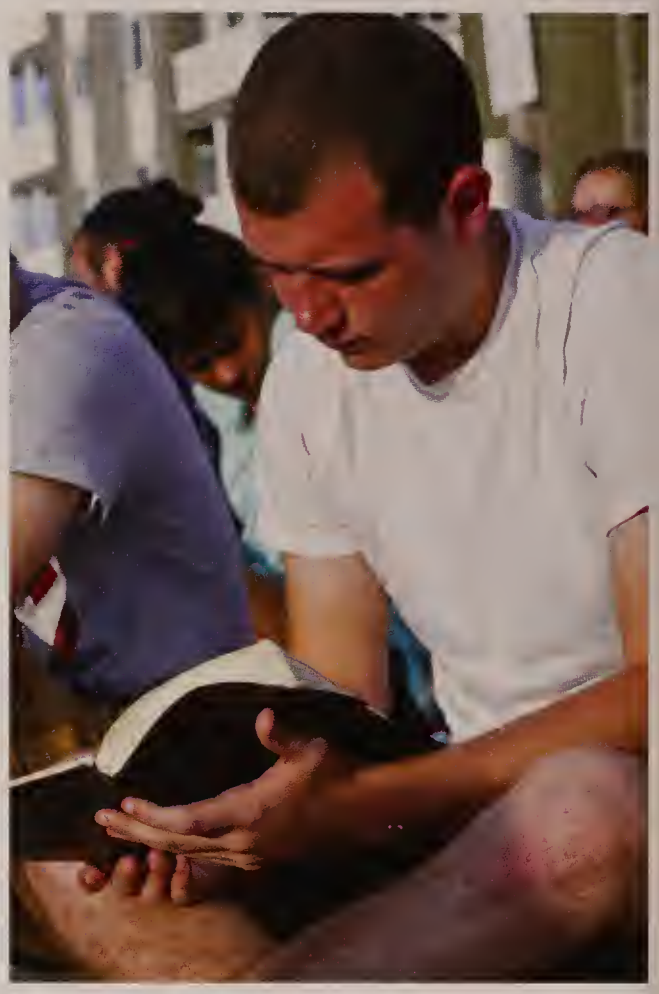
RES. CIU LIFE



Beach Trip

CIU Students Relaxing in Garden City, South Carolina

In September, various CIU students enjoyed spending time together at the beach. Here, they fellowshipped with one another through worship, games, and shopping. The students took off on Friday afternoon and returned on Sunday refreshed and ready to return to their studies. Fun was had by all as they grew closer to one another, and most imortantly, to God.



Events of...

The Juniors and Seniors

CIU's upperclassmen, the juniors and seniors, enjoyed many events throughout the year. The juniors hosted events such as the Shag dance and a study break. At these events they had a ball learning how to dance the shag, and they were able to relax and enjoy each others company at the study break. Seniors had events such as boat rides with Dr. Ferra, a Christmas party, and a trail clean up. At these events they were able to fellowship with each other and faculty, enjoy some holiday spirit, and help serve the student body.

Events of...

The Freshmen and Sophomores

CIU's underclassmen, the freshmen and sophomores, enjoyed various get-togethers throughout the year. The freshmen had events such as 917s and 3Ts. They did many things at each of these events, like dressing up and playing games, playing underground church, and giving praise to and worshipping God. The sophomore class is a very active class and have had several events. One of the most memorable was the 80's night that they had in the Fitness Center. They dressed in bright neon and other 80's gear and enjoyed playing bingo. Both of these classes were exhilerated by the times shared with one another.

Summer Missions

CIU Students Serving During the Summer

Throughout their time at CIU, many students choose to be involved in ministry and serving over the summer. Whether it be teaching, working at camp, helping with construction, or serving alumni, there are several opportunites for students to serve during the summer. Students always come back to school with wonderful stories of how they saw God at work in others and in their own lives.

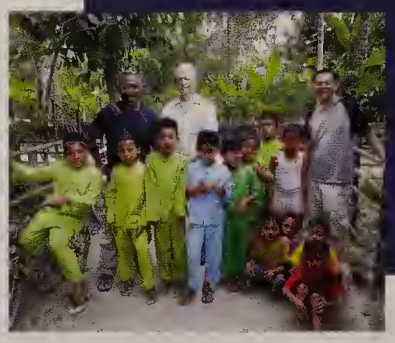
Melissa McCutchan spent 6 weeks in Croatia, Eastern Europe working with local children, orphans, and Roma (gypsy) children.

Amanda Johnston taught English in China.

Brett Yardley helped rebuild a park with Japanese locals in the tsunami devastated city of Ishinomaki.

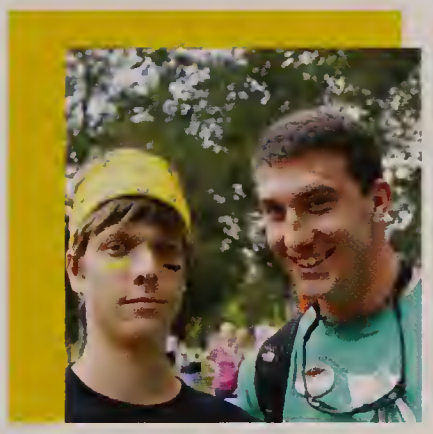
Jonah Fair as a counselor for Temple Zion Baptist Youth Group.

Hannah Lingenhoel spent the summer in Hungary doing Baseball Ministry with the OM Hungary SportsLink.



Ronny Kolty and Keng Lim serving CIU alumni in Sumatra, Indonesia.

Jeremy Lytle was in Fort Lewis, Washington, as the Chaplain of 450 ROTC



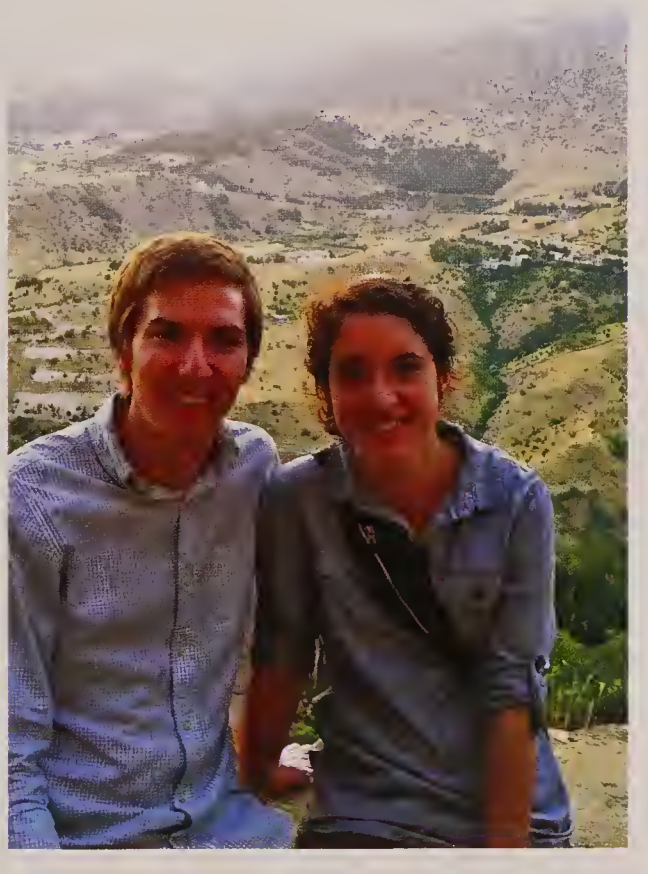
Kyle Simmons was a 7th and 8th grade counselor at WinShape Camps for Boys.

Louis Tang served at Christian Youth in Action 2012 training Hong Kong youth to teach Macau children about the Gospel.

Aimee Lindstrom was a camp counselor for 9 and 10 year old girls at Kids Across America in Missouri.

Abigail Reddington worked with a church-planting/relief work team in Ishinomaki, northern Japan.

Eugene Wade was an intern at The Gathering Place in Georgia working with youth.

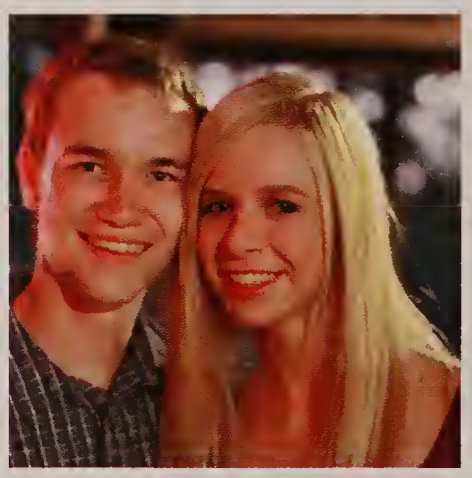


Joe and Bree Osborne spent the summer in Northern Iraq teaching English.

Hoedown and Shag

The Annual Hoedown and the First Shag Dance

This year, CIU had great social times. The students loved fellowshipping at the annual Hoedown and the first-ever Shag Dance. At the Hoedown, the students enjoyed eating and square dancing as well as watching a pie-eating contest. For the Shag dance, dance classes were held to teach the students different moves involved in shag dancing. At the Shag dance, the students practiced their newly-learned dance moves with a date, hallmate, or friend. Both events were memorable times of fun for all involved.



Spirit Week

CIU Homecoming 2012

Spirit week takes place every year during homecoming. Students have an opportunity to enjoy dressing up for various themes throughout the week and attending activities planned. The themes this year consisted of neon, superheroes, cowboys and Indians, patriotic, and CIU spirit days. Some of the activities throughout the week were best costume contests and a movie night. Everyone did a great job showing off their school spirit!

Homecoming

CIU Annual Homecoming 2012

This year's homecoming honored Dr. Kumiko Takeuchi. The theme of homecoming was "Power of One." Dr. Kumiko Takeuchi spoke and challenged the audience about how influential people can be even on their own. In her own life, Dr. Kumiko Takeuchi has had marvelous accomplishments as a single woman. To get in the spirit of Homecoming, the students dressed up all week.. The students dressed up as their favorite Avenger, in neon, in their country's colors, as a cowboy or indian, and finally in blue and gold. The students had a blast and enjoyed expressing their creativity throughout spirit week.

CIU BOWL

Where the North & South go head-to-head!

Good food, great teams, and amazing fellowship! As is tradition, the event started with a CIU meal on the lawn at the Ben Lippen football field followed up by a chilli cook-off. The flag football games started with the North girl's team up against the South women's team followed by the men's North and South teams. The North women defeated the South 14-0 while the South men beat the North 26-14. Many students and alumni came out and enjoyed the games!

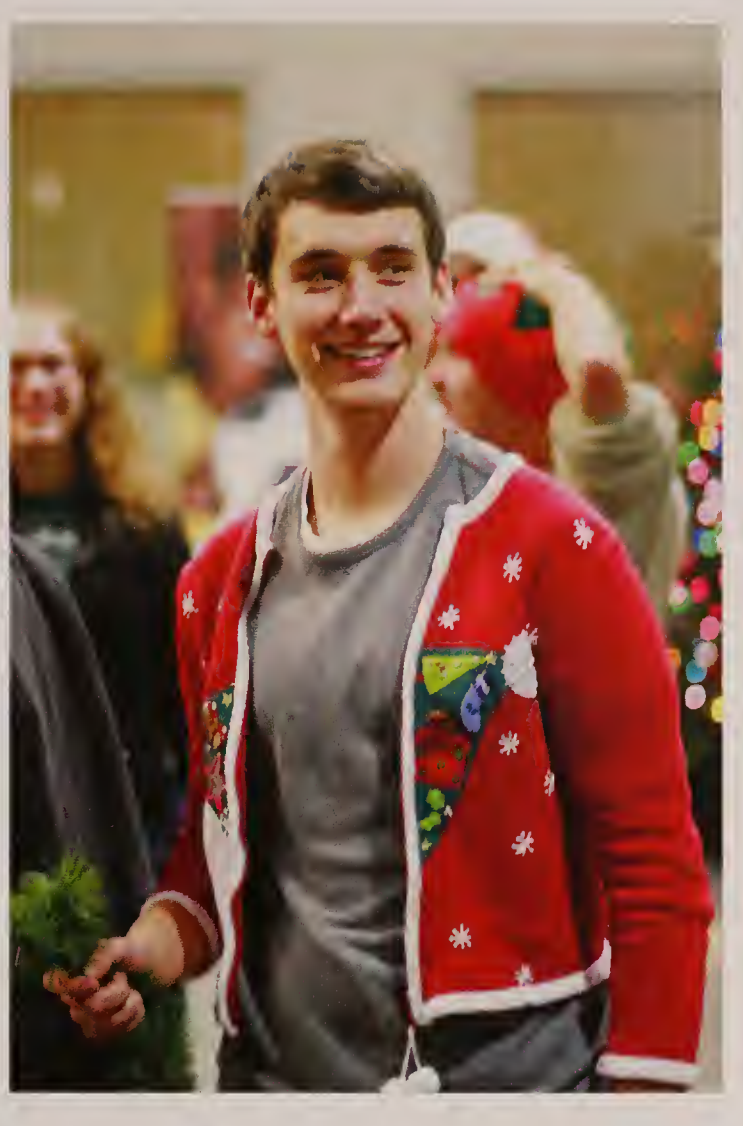
McQuilken Weekend

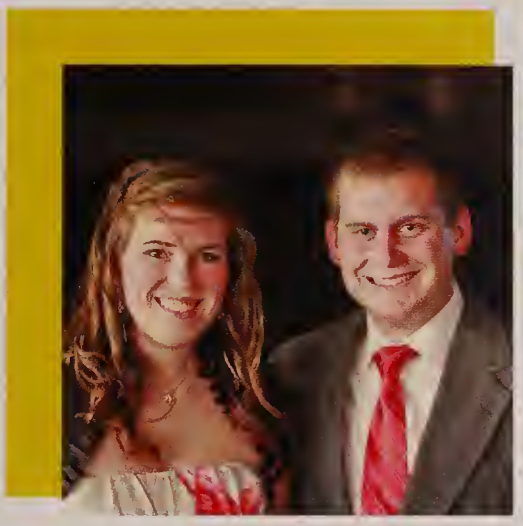
On the first weekend in December, students from all over the country and the world come to Columbia International University for a competitive weekend. Students were tested in scholoastics, leadership, and connectedness to see who will be honored with the full tuition ride to CIU. Life long friendships and fun memories are constantly being made because of this weekend on the campus of CIU. This year's scholarship winner was 18-year old Drew Lindman from Farmington High School.

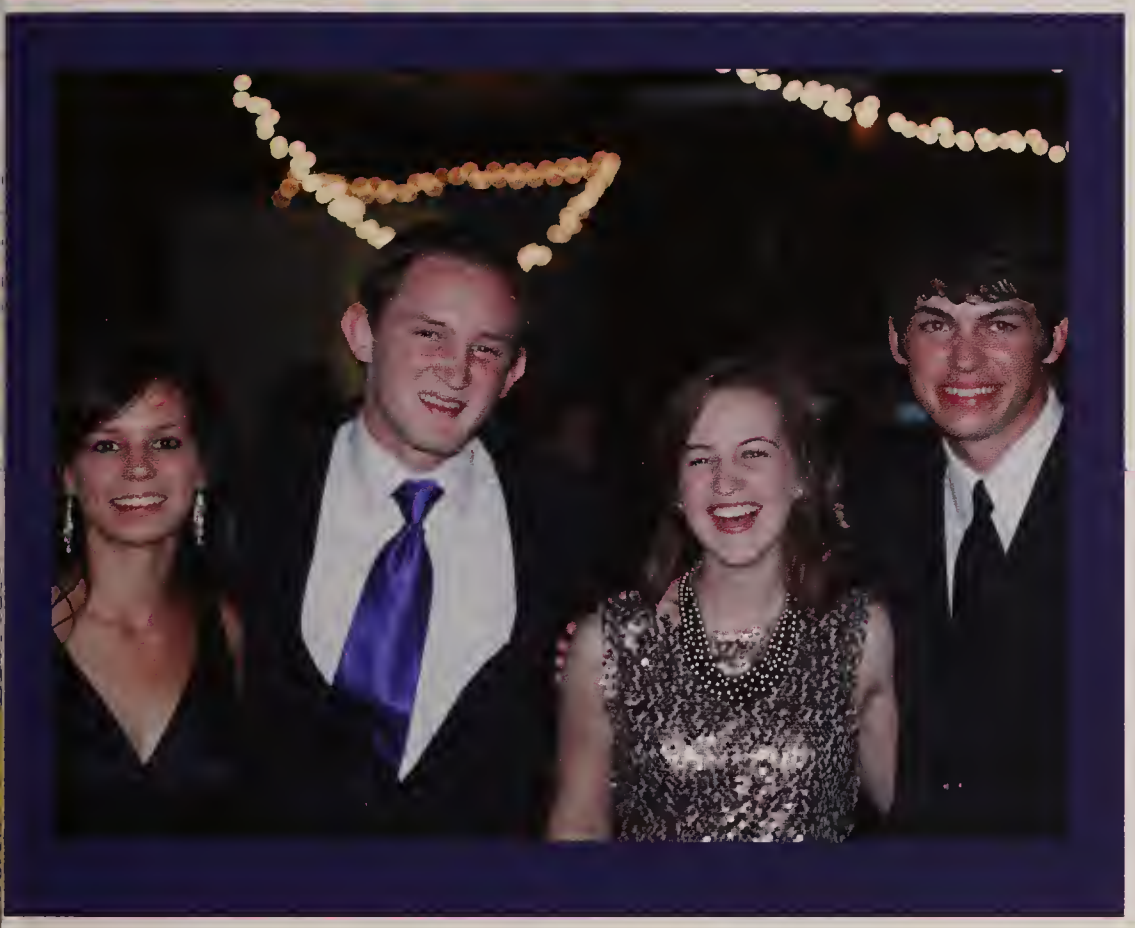


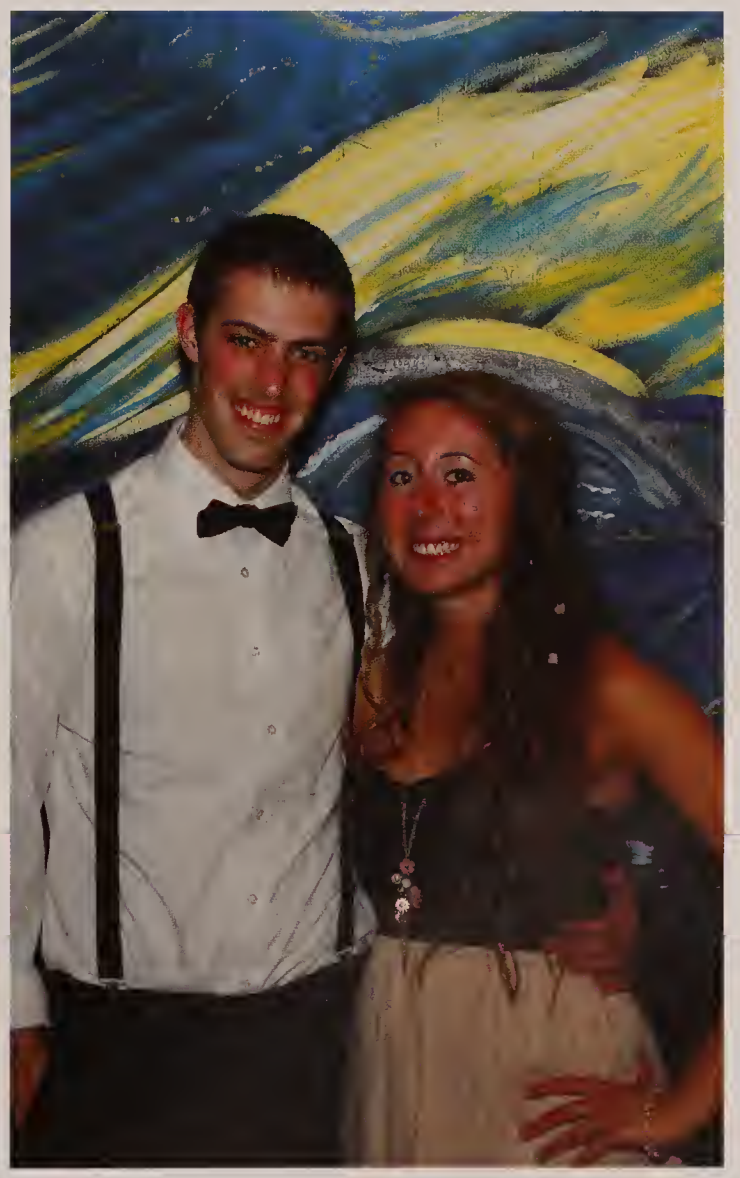
Winter Formal

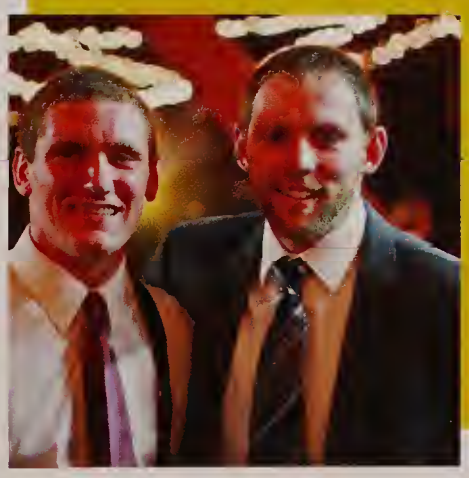
It was a starry night at the Columbia Museum of Art

CIU's Student Union team put together an excellent Winter Formal this school year. Themed by VanGoghe's famous painting- Starry Night, there was a room decked out in stars and twinkling lights. Chalk was available so that students could leave behind their own contribution to the decorations on the chalkboard painted walls. Further activities included a three course meal, photo booth and Wii dance set up. There was also dancing to music being DJ'd by one of CIU's very own and raffling of gift cards. Students also took advantage of looking through the museum's art work display. A big thank you to this years Student Union for an incredible Winter Formal!









Campus Life

What do students do between the early morning hours of class and the late night classes on the weekdays? Well, some spend their hours in the library attempting to be studious while also catching up with friends about their days. Others hang out with faculty during work hours for some good laughs. Some even play frisbee on the Quad and take a run around the campus. No matter what's going on, the campus is full of vibrant personalities and activities to challenge, grow, and entertain every student.

Hall Happenings

Where memories are made...

Living in communion with twenty-or-so other resident students on your hall is a thing to cherish. From the walks together to class or the late night chats, to singing in the shower-memories are made. The dorm halls are where life-long friendships bud and blossom and where life lessons are learned. Hallelujah for a place to struggle through life together and enjoy one another. This is a place in which we can embrace and learn how to fellowship as we are prescribed to as believers.

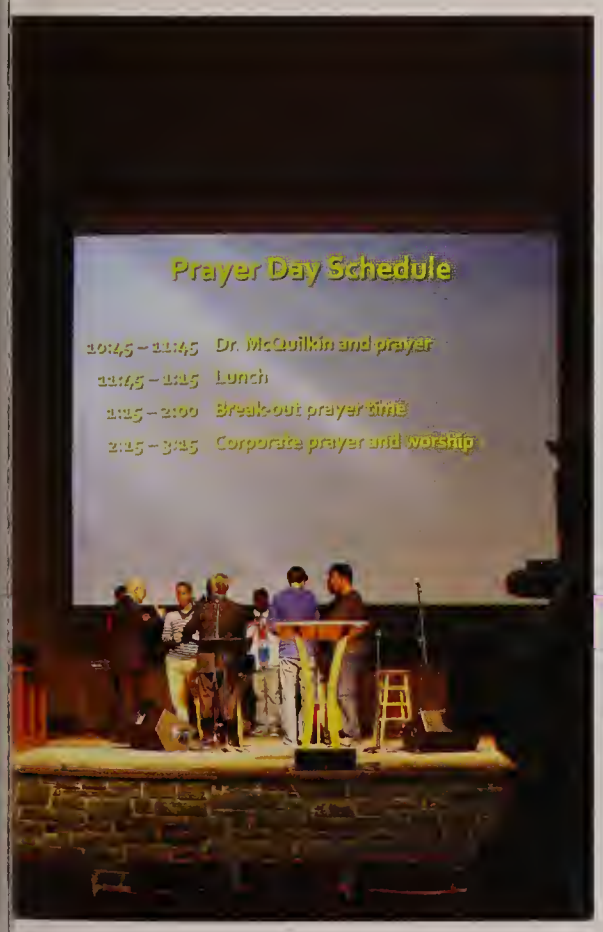
Prayer Day

A core value here at Columbia International

Prayer days are a day where classes are called to a hault and praise, prayer and worship are the total focus. These days are a blessing as students are able to focus on and draw nigh to God. A typical prayer day starts around 8:30am with a time of worship and Scripture reading followed by prayer. A speaker comes in and gives a message at 11:00am which is followed by lunch and more prayer. Students are encouraged to prepare themselves for prayer day and take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to focus soley on praising our Lord.

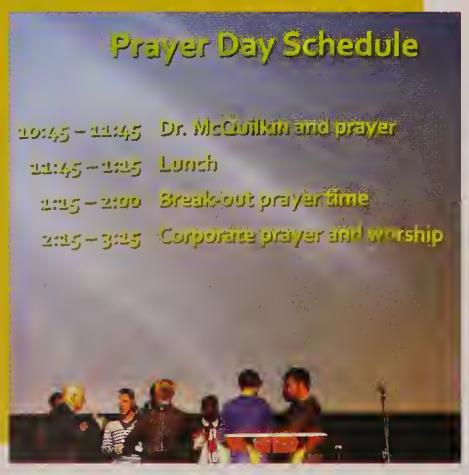
VICTORIOUS
HRISTIAN LIVING



Prayer Day Schedule
10:45 – 11:45 Dr. McQuilkin and prayer
11:45 – 1:15 Lunch
1:15 – 2:00 Break-out prayer time
2:15 – 3:15 Corporate prayer and worship

Christian Life Conference

The Christian Life Conference is a week long series that focuses on challenging students and faculty in their Christian walk. This year, Robertson McQuilken, CIU'S President Emeritus, spoke on the core value "Victorious Christian Life". During McQuilken's teachings, the phrase "Yield and Trust" was the sole point he drove home. In order to pursue the Victorious Christian Life we must "Yield and Trust" in our relationships with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.



World Christian Week

Worthy, responding to His worthiness through our obedience & sacrafice

World Christian Week was held from February 26th through March 1st 2013. The week included stories and messages on "Worthy, responding to His worthiness through our obedience and sacrafice."The main speaker for this week was Michael Oh who is the president and founder of Christ Bible Seminary in Nagoya, Japan. This week included a Prayer Day, fireside chats and even a night of making California Rolls with Michael Oh while listening to his testimony. The cafeteria held foods from around the world this week. Also, agencies came to CIU and had mission reps available at booths in the Student Center. This week was one of learning, growth and meriment.

SPORTS

It has been a full year for the sports program at Columbia International University. With introducing Men's Soccer and Cross Country, our school has expanded the sports program. Alongside the official sports that have made their way into the heart of the CIU Community, students go head on in the intermural program. With volleyball, dodgeball and flag football kicking off in the fall semester, indoor soccer and basketball beginning in the winter and ultimate frisbee winding up the year, CIU has its hands full of recreational sports that anyone can join in. Exciting news has been spreading around CIU with the announcements of Men and Women's Basketball. Needless to say the sporting community is growing in leaps this year. Our athletes have overcome many obstacles this year, as well as setting standards for the Rams in the future.

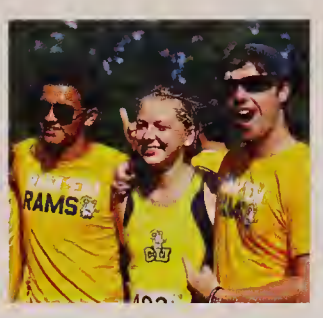
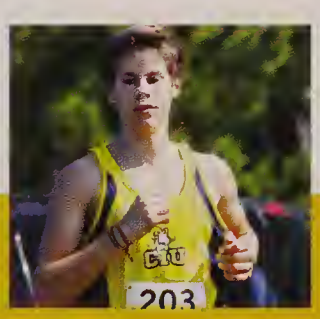
Men's Soccer

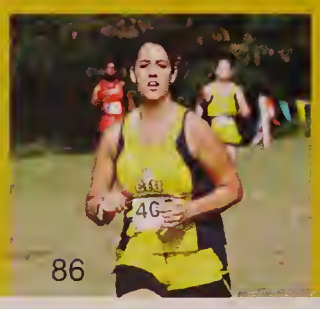
2012 was a big year for Columbia International University as it was their first time ever having Intercolligate sports. The CIU Rams soccer team led by Coach James Whitaker assisted by Jeff Crews and Tyler Spraul won their fist game against Toccoa Falls Eagles with a 1-0 victory and proudly finished their season 9-9-2. CIU fans are extremely excited to see what these men bring to the field next season.

Ram 'em Rams!!

Men's and Women's Cross Country







Not only was soccer the begining of CIU's intercollegiate sports, but both Men's and Women's Cross Country began with a racing start. Both teams, coached by Judd Rooker and assisted by Joe and Ashley Danneley, trained hard every morning and afternoon to meet their goals and improve their times. Thanks to all their hard work and dedication, CIU Rams traveled to Ohio for Nationals. CIU is excited to have set the foundation for more CIU runners.

With the athletic spirits high in the air, students rushed to join CIU's first intermural sport of the year. Volleyball quickly became popular with both underclassmen and upperclassmen as teams were created. Day after day, practice after practice all teams worked their hardest to play against one another at their fullest potential. Does CIU have a future with Volleyball?

Another popular sport on the CIU campus is dodgeball. Almost everyone enjoys feeling like a kid again, and this pasttime brings people back to a time in high school or middle school when dodgeball was a real hit. The competitve atmosphere is light-hearted and fun, an embodiment of what the CIU community is all about.

This race held on Saturday, February 4th 2013 was the second annual discover CIU 5k run. This year had the additional option of a 10k path as well. It was held here on CIU's campus as well as Ben Lippen's. The run's intention was to bring awareness and attention to CIU's new athletic's program.

Intramural Basketball

This classic sport is a favorite among CIU students. They jump at the chance for some friendly competition and to take a break from being studious. For students, it is a great way to unwind and have some fun.

Organizations

"Rep & Serve"

The motto for the Student Senate says it all. CIU's organizations exist to represent the valued students of Columbia International as well as serve them in numerous capacities.

CIU's organizations are excellent at providing activities to bring the student body together, further developing this unique community.

With 16 distinct organizations and a few clubs, students have excellent opportunity to engage in a variety of activities.

Student Life

Throughout every year at CIU, students are encouraged to be a part of a huge community of believers. Activities are created to support the continual growth of each student, while also bringing men and women of God together in friendship. Whether students are celebrating with 917's, going on ski trips, jammin' out on the beach, or even just hanging out in the dorms drinking coffee, relationships are constantly being built.

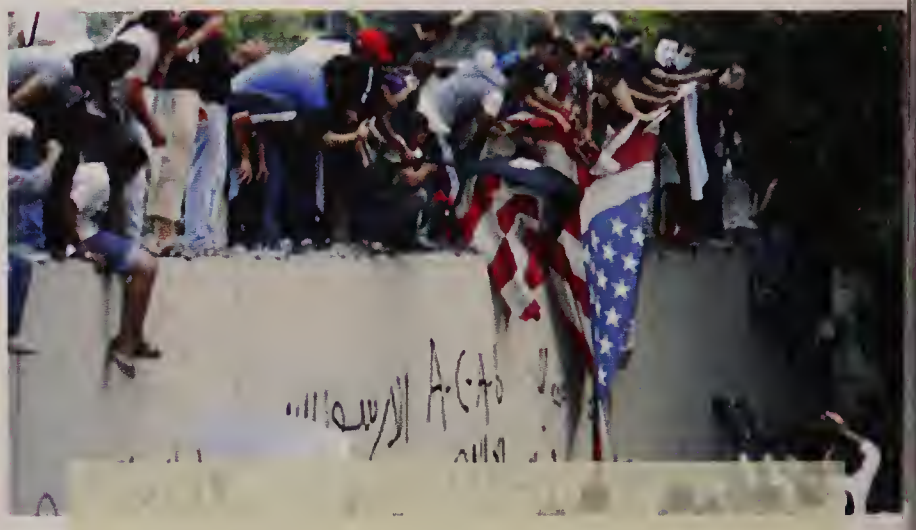
What Happened in 2012?

In July, the city of London had the privilege of hosting the 2012 Summer Olympics.

In August, the rover "Curiosity" that was launched in November of 2011 landed safely on Mars.

The CIU soccer team played and won the first intercollegiate athletic event on August 25 against the Toccoa Falls Eagles.



In early September, demonstrators in Yemen, Egypt, and Libya attacked the U.S. Embassies.

Felix Baumgartner now holds the record for the parachute jump after jumping from the stratosphere on October 14.

Hurricane Sandy had devastating effects in the northeast when it made landfall in late October.

The 2012 Presidential Election led to the re-election of President Barack Obama.

In early December, it was announced that William and Kate were expecting their first child, who is due in July of 2013.

At Sandy Hook Elementary School, 20 students and six teachers were killed in a tragic shooting on December 14.

According to the Mayans, the world was said to end on December 21, 2012, but as we know, the world still exists.

Prison Initiative

The mission behind the Prison Initiative is to train inmates to live by Christian principles and equip them for the unique ministry opportunities available to them because of their incarceration. CIU facilitates this through an accredited Associate of Arts program designed for inmates where they take classes and study just like a student would in the classroom. Improving the culture of our prisons, exposing inmates to the gospel and offering inmates an opportunity to grow to maturity in their faith will have an impact on many of the 15,000 inmates released from South Carolina and add many souls to Christ's Kingdom!

Letter from the Editors

This year, we picked the theme, "Impact: Make Your Mark", so that this Yearbook will be personal to every student here at CIU. Each of us have a certain calling and many passions that make us who God has created us to be. Even though we are all different in many ways, one thing that connects us all together is being in the family of God. One command in the Bible that God specifically gave every believer was "to make disciples of all nations." That idea was part of the reason behind our theme. With the Power of the Holy Spirit and our willingness to submit to what God has in store, we will impact the world as one body. By impacting the world, our prayer should be that we are leaving marks as well. Leaving marks on peoples lives, in our families, on the mission field, in a classroom, in the market place, and even through our passions such as sports and theater. So let us make our mark on this world as we impact the world for Christ's glory.

All for Him,

Chelsie and Tina
